Dear Friends,

“For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee. <sup>6</sup> I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence, <sup>7</sup> And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth. <sup>8</sup> The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured: <sup>9</sup> But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness. <sup>10</sup> Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people. <sup>11</sup> Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. <sup>12</sup> And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.”

Isaiah 62:5-12

Advent is the season in the church year dedicated to preparing for the return of Christ. The second coming of our Lord is not met with fear, but rather with great anticipation and celebration. Those who fear Christ’s coming, only do so because they do not truly know our Great and Gracious King.

The sense in which we wait for our triumphant Redeemer is that of a bride longing for her bridegroom. We, as the bride of Christ, anxiously await the coming our Bridegroom, because of what He did for us at the Cross. The Apostle Paul uses this imagery of marriage “Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave Himself for it; <sup>26</sup> That He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, <sup>27</sup> That He might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.” Ephesians 5:25-27 Because Christ shed His blood for us at the Cross, God delights in us. As Isaiah tells us “...as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.” As a result, we rejoice in our heavenly Bridegroom, because He rejoices in us. “We love Him, because He first loved us.” I John 4:19.

A few years ago, I spoke with a woman shortly after her wedding, and I asked her if she remembered all of the wonderful things that happened that day. In spite of all of the many details and decorations that were meticulously planned for her wedding, this woman said that as she began walking down the aisle, the only thing she saw was her bridegroom. In the same way, may God grant us grace in this Advent season that, by faith, we would only see Jesus, our heavenly Bridegroom. May the Lord also richly bless you all during this Advent and Christmas season.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Chuck Bylkas
